I sing cowboy music much the same as it's been sung around the campfire for many many years. 15 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Country Gospel, SPOKEN WORD: Poetry Details: Eddy's CD "Songs Around The Campfire" follows a cowboy and his guitar format. His voice is rustic, in the best sense of the word. He sounds like a cowboy, and it's a real pleasant experience to hear his interpretations of the standards as well as his own compositions. Eddy has recorded with legendary figures Stuart Hamblen, Cliffie Stone and Red Steagall, and his professional experience is evident. A most enjoyable CD. O.J. Sikes review Jan Feb Rope Burns Magazine Eddy is like a bar of Ivory Soap. He is 99 and 44/100 percent pure and his music will leave you feeling clean and refreshed. Don't miss an opportunity to hear Eddy Harrison Perform. Emmit Brooks, Goldust Studios Las Cruces New Mexico These are just a couple of reviews about my records. I love to sing the old cowboy songs and songs about outlaws and horses and some love songs and just a smattering of real cowboy poetry, then throw in a few old time Gospel songs just for good measure. I sing these songs as if I were singing to a bunch of folks enjoying a simple campfire. Did I mention it's my very favorite thing to do. I wrote Four of the songs on this CD. One of them "Sing a Song for Daisy" was actually written for the soundtrack of a movie called "The Wild Rovers". Before every performance I give, I always say a small prayer and I ask God to let me touch just one heart. It would be my great pleasure if you would let me touch yours. Love you all Eddy Harrison I also build world class jumbo acoustic guitars and inlay them with real turquoise. See My Website at blueeagleguitars.com
