Alternative CCM ; Toe tapping music with a positive message 16 MP3 Songs SPIRITUAL: Alternative CCM, POP: Pop/Rock Details: famous painters PATE RD. After a 20+ year hiatus, famous painters, Chris Pudsey and John Reynolds were reunited at a gathering with former bandmates, Mark Alfred and Cam Villar (thechromedrug.com), and almost immediately began discussing plans to record a new cd of original contemporary Christian music. Within weeks the duo had begun work on the project that would some six months later culminate with the release of famous painters: PATE RD. Reynolds, a Pensacola, FL native, began taking guitar lessons at age 13 and soon began playing in churches and at youth group functions. While attending Concordia Lutheran College in Austin, TX, John started writing his own songs and upon his return to Pensacola, he, along with Alfred and Villar, formed the original Names, the first "new wave" band in the area. With the breakup of the Names, he soon moved to New Orleans where he spent the next 23 years playing in various secular and Christian bands as well as performing solo. In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, John moved back to Pensacola, paving the way for the reunion with Chris. Chris Pudsey was born into a military family, which after various assignments across the country, finally settled in Pensacola. Childhood friend Villar introduced Chris and John in 1980 and the pair quickly became fast friends and musical collaborators. When John moved to New Orleans in 1982, Chris soon followed and they, along with Richard Hassell, recorded an EP under the name News, Sports and Weather. When Chris moved back to Pensacola in late 1983 they eventually lost touch. That is until the reunion in September 2006 that has resulted in their new cd. famous painters new cd, PATE RD, consists of 16 original songs that strive to reflect life's struggles as a flawed human being as well as God's plan and promise of salvation, mercy and grace.
