Ghattobillies 2nd full Length album is a delicate balance of beautifully soft arrangements, bluegrass tinged punk rock songs, and R&B sprinkled funk all wrapped up in 3 part harmonies and lyrics about subjects ranging from being the line dance champion to 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, URBAN/R&B: Funk Details: "...their blend of funk, country, bluegrass, midwestern radio rock, and even sweet balladry is raucous, infectious, sexy, and genuinely funny. Their unlikely style meshings are so seamlessly executed that they make perfect sense." -Monica Kendrick, Chicago Reader "...they seem to be influenced by every artist ever recorded..." -Melody Baetens, The Detroit News "The bastard love children of Tom Lehrer, the Kinks, Dave Mathews Band and the Rugburns-or some other recombination thereof-Ghattobillies snuggle right up against that thin line between sublime and silly..." -Chris Handyside, Metrotimes "this four piece is an outfit simply defying the norms of music...outlandishly clever!" -Luke Smith, The Michigan Daily Four and a half Stars! "Their music is not a series of knock knock jokes, but rather a whirlwind of pop culture references and sneak peeks at the seamy underbelly of society...and are sung with such earnestness that the listener can scarcely believe their ears." -Zac Johnson, All Music Guide "...you get frenetic folk with echoes of the Red Hot Chili Peppers and the Young Dubliners..." -Northern Express Weekly "...these guys are as talented as they are crazy..." -Dave Hoger, Jackson Citizen Patriot "...Ghattobillies really are that good..." -Alan Behler, Orbit magazine "...this Ann Arbor trio achieves a level of professionalism not usually heard on a local level." -Real Detroit "If the Indigo Girls had a sense of humor, foul mouths and overactive libidos, they might sound more like Ghattobillies...The songs are intoxicatingly catchy and highly danceable" -Wendy Case, Detroit news "The Ghattobillie's shows are a scream." -Erick Trickey, Current Magazine "...Ghattobillies are an irreverent, iconoclastic, scatological shock fest where you can't quite believe what your hearing." Todd Spencer, Current
