Music you can feel that has soul. This album was improvisational and caught at the moment of creation in 1988, Mystic Fog Garden livingroom. 8 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, FOLK: Folk Blues Details: Mystic Fog Gardens second album "Memories in the Attic". A collection of improvisational ballads and instrumentals. The storyline songs that started the group Mystic Fog Garden, done in the livingroom and taped during the inspired moment, 1988. Edited and digitally enhanced in the studio, 2005. Devine harmonies and sweet soulful layerings of notes in the right place, all by feeling the music. The ballad's are of a mans "life flash before his eye's" experience. First song, "Lovin' man" is the life flash experience after being shot in a home invasion, laying in the hallway his life passes before him (songs 2-7). The End Song is, the dieing man see's his own funeral and regret's not slowing down and appreciating the small things in life. Independently yours, John Ketelhut, Producer/musician/human
