This is my new collection of story-songs and tributes to people I've admired and loved, with sparkling instrumentals on piano and guitar to round it out. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, NEW AGE: New Age Details: "Beautiful and haunting!" --Jennifer Nichole Porter, actress, screenwriter and composer Siu Wai Stroshane was born in Hong Kong and raised in the U.S. by an adoptive family. She majored in music at Stanford and began performing at folk festivals and coffeehouses in the Bay Area in 1977. She has been featured on TV and radio, and for many years was a member of the Asian American Resource Workshop in Boston. Now in her 40s with grown children, she is returning to her songwriting roots with this collection of old and new songs as well as dynamic piano improvisations. Her music has truly "made her free!"
