Impressive debut cd. Former Caviar guitarist fronts new Chicago band. Influences include The Smiths, The Cure, Suede, Interpol, Blur, etc. 5 MP3 Songs POP: British Pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Dave Suh, former lead guitarist for Chicago rock bands Caviar (Island/Def Jam Records) and Woolworthy (Boss Tuneage Records), has decided to unleash his own growing catalog of Brit-pop inspired tunes by forming and fronting his own band, The Assembly. In doing so, he has enlisted the help of powerhouse drummer Mike Zuffante (former Organic drummer), bassist Gary Gustovich, and his brother, multi-instrumentalist, Nathan Suh. Nathan recently moved back to Chicago from Los Angeles to play keyboards and guitar. The band has recently been on Q101's Crash Test Radio, Local 101, and Mancow's Morning Madhouse, as well as Fearless Radio's Live Music Binge. The new album, "Commencement" (Electronic Battleship Records), was released in November and was produced by Josiah Mazzaschi (Light FM singer/genius) and mixed by Alex Kemp (Assassins bassist/guru). The cd can be found at Reckless Records, Lori's Planet of Sound, Record Emporium, Hard-Boiled Records, and online at CDBABY.COM.
