Not confined to one musical style or genre, Lessons, the debut release from The Big Hurt melds elements of Alternative Rock, Reggae, Acid Jazz, Hip-Hop, Funk, Drum-n-Bass, Ska, Punk, Latin, and Go-Go. Music without Boundaries. Stay Humble. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Psychedelic, ELECTRONIC: Drum 'n Bass/Jungle Details: The original core of the band began On Kent Island, MD in 1998. Vocalist Billy Martin, Guitarist Will Sutton, Bassist Tim Johnson, and DJ Frank Kanady began to fuse elements of Rock with Reggae and Drum-n-Bass. With the additions of Baltimore, MD Drummer Jamie Kelley, and Waldorf, MD Percussionist Matt Costello, the group began to incorporate even more musical styles and rhythms including Funk, Acid Jazz, Hip Hop, Go-Go, Jungle, and Trip Hop. The result is an accessible blending of many musical influences into one groove known as The Big Hurt. Message from the Band: We pride ourselves in creating good vibes and great music that is accessible to a diverse range of people. We have strived over the years to carve out a sound that will be distinctive in the industry and we always try to capture that feeling live - so if you have the opportunity...come see us. Also, please continue to check out our site from time to time for where and when our next performance will be. We are working hard to make a name for ourselves and appreciate every one who makes it out to see us. Spread the word and continued thanks to everyone for the love and support.... Billy Martin, Will Sutton, Tim Johnson, Matt Costello, Jamie Kelley Frank Kanady... - The Big Hurt.
