Piano rock meets New Orleans Jazz meets old time radio thrillers. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, POP: Beatles-pop Details: Formed in 2003 at the esteemed Hartt School of Music, The Sesha Loop has broken the mold of the typical power pop trio for good. Armed with an encyclopedic knowledge of pop music, a quick wit, and the aesthetics of the hippest 1930s jazz musicians, this Hartford-based 3 piece has carved out their own niche in the pop music landscape with their debut album, An Evening With The Sesha Loop. Led by keyboardist/ vocalist Scott Bradlee, The Sesha Loop combines Ben Folds Five-era keyboard bashing, witty songwriting a la Elvis Costello, a heavy dose of jazz/ funk, and sinister organs straight out of 1940s radio thrillers in their tight-knit, tasteful arrangements. Couple this with an energetic, buzzworthy stage show that features (on any given night) a disco dance-off, appearance by an eccentric British New Wave star, a medley of classic rock songs interpreted as ragtime piano, an impromptu marching band appearance, and other over-the-top moments and it is clear what sets this band apart from your typical pop/rock outfit. The bands lineup includes reknowned session bassist Chris Anderson, drummer Mike Lapke, and special guest appearances by sax extraordinaire Ben Golder-Novick. Come and spend "An Evening With The Sesha Loop" as they take the listener from ragtime and New Orleans jazz to Beatles-era pop to funk and gospel and much more!
