Details: The Singing Pinguins are a fun group, based in Switzerland but sing in English. You'll recognize most of their repertoire - "Higher and Higher," "Let's Get Away From It All," "People Get Ready," "Still The One" and "60 Minute Man," to name a few - but their fun, energetic style means you'll enjoy getting to know these old friends again. With 11 voices it's not quite the typical doo-wop or contemporary sound some people might expect, but they've got the tight blend to not sound like a mini-choir either. (64:17 2000)
