"Right up there with Charlaine Harris." The intimacy scenes were pretty gratuitous and HOT!!! The book definitely held my interest. Overall, It was a very good story, right up there with Charlaine Harris (True Blood series). I was a little disappointed at the end because I was wanting the story to continue but isn't that the test of a good book; always leave the reader wanting more !!! ~Myra D., Book Fanatic Normally I don't care for romances or westerns, but I loved "Run into the Wind". It was wonderfully written, contains mysteries, satisfying, and unforgettable... It is a novel you can fall into and get lost. Readers are going to enter a richer world. I envy them the trip. ~Cathy Yoder Farmer, Artist Run into the Wind by Lynn Hubbard
