Details: "Bucktown Kickback Mine Alt-Country GOLD Dudding singer, songwriter and creative force behind Bucktown Kickback produced much of the bands 2007 disc Lost In Your Hometown to sound like prime Appalachia. The record effectively balances roots grit and country rock coherence. Seven Number Blues is an enlightened redneck tune that sounds like a Basement Tapes leftover. Thats Life is a slow burn of honky-tonk molasses. A Neil Young-type rocker, A Shooting Star, closes the record. But the heart of Lost is Duddings songs and lived-in vocals. While the embellishments are tasteful, the material could stand up fine presented by Dudding and his acoustic." Matt Wake, BOOTLEG
