Related styles: COUNTRY: Alt-Country, COUNTRY: Contemporary Country Details: Crystal Rose grew up in a small farming town in South Georgia called Moultrie. As a child her dream to perform music began when her Mother would listen to the radio and all the great hits of Patsy Cline and Loretta Lynn. She fell in love with the music and the idea that one day she would sing and be on the radio. She has never given up on her dream. You could find Crystal where the music was. She loved music so much she would join in singing anytime the opportunity was available. Her dream of being an artist has always lingered on in her heart. In 1991 Crystal took second place in the MDA Gong Show in Crystal River Florida. Crystal performs at private parties and at community and corporate events. She competed and place third in The Colgate Country Show Down in Jacksonville Florida in 2006. Crystal won the regional in the Talent Quest in Ocala and went on to compete in the nationals in Nevada. Crystal performed on the Sun Cruise Casino Boat out of Crystal River and New Port Richey, Florida. With the dream deep in her heart Crystal never hesitated to sing with a small town band. Fact is she has sung with several bands. While playing with bands it was not long until Curtis Gordon and Mel Tillis help Crystal land her first big job in a band. She began playing with Southern Satisfaction Band at the Rockie II Club in Jacksonville, Florida, where she stayed for six years. During these times she met a great deal of musicians and people in the music industry. She met an artist named Rebel in Jacksonville, Florida. Rebel invited Crystal to a new album and introduction party for a new group called Chosen Few. At this party was the renowned artist by the name of Jeff Cook from the group Alabama. Jeff Cook knew Crystal from the Rocky II Club where he would visit when in Florida. There Crystal would perform on stage with Jeff Cook and the Southern Satisfaction Band. Also during these times she met Trisha Yearwoods bass player named Keith. There would be times they all would gather for the evening performing and singing. Now Crystal is making here dream a reality! Not knowing where her music will take her next really doesn't matter when you are doing what you love. It's her dream and she is making a breakthrough in life doing what she loves. She has recorded her first album of ten songs. Although she does not write, she spent a lot of time choosing the right songs. She has recorded ten new songs that have meaning to the life she has lived. Crystal plans to be out there performing all her new songs along with the old ones in the near future. Her prayer is to see you all there. The title of her brand new CD is Crystal Rose.... Restless Winds Blowing. Crystal Rose.... Restless Winds Blowing. Crystal Rose brand new album Restless Winds Blowing brings you ten songs like Wild Wild Rose, a song she dedicated to her loving father. Wild Wild Rose turned out to be her favorite. The song is about a father daughter love and their place in life. It's about loving a daughter as a child to the pain of letting her go when she is grown. Wild Wild Rose is up-tempo delivered with very smooth vocals. Wild Wild Rose is receiving airplay on Clear Channels nationwide with a tremendous response. Real Bad Mood is a contemporary country single and a two-step song with an attitude. The musicians lend a modern southern rock sound to the single written by Don Pothyress and Leslie Satcher of Nashville. Vocal by Crystal Rose is a match melody with power. Don't Even Think About It comes across with a modern day sound of country. Don't Even Think About It is the kind of blend that will make waves, with fast tempo and lyrics sung with great conviction by Crystal Rose.
