An exciting mix of Latin jazz, Flamenco and modern world beat. Like a litre or two of musical Sangria. 15 MP3 Songs LATIN: Flamenco, WORLD: World Beat Details: De La Terra (Spanish for "Of The Earth") is the brainchild of Vancouver based guitarist Doug Towle (pronounced tl). A unique blend of world music and Spanish guitar, De La Terra is jazz infused rumba flamenco with a dash of modern world beat. After writing and recording the first independent CD, "Lluvia", De La Terra hit the stage and quickly became one of the most popular acts in southern B.C. and has continued to thrill audiences around the province. The highly anticipated second album "Rhythm and Passion" is a major development in Doug's compositions and guitar playing. His busy schedule of live shows has honed his material and musicianship into a stunning blend of talent and entertainment. De La Terra is one of the most unique live acts going. An amazing mix of styles and genres, their instrumental songs range from haunting and romantic to infectious energetic. They've been a hit with people of all ages and walks of life and are sure to please anyone who experiences one their dynamic performances.
