Details: Dr Frank Munoz, el medico del sabor, is a real life practicing physician, who has had a lifelong passion for music. Though singing since the age of five, he started formal music lessons at seven in his native Cuba. He moved to The United States at the age of thirteen, and continued with his piano lessons. In High School he learned to play the Cello, and performed with his High School orchestra for 4 years. He has been a member of several choirs and chorales. He wrote his first song in medical school, but got seriously involved in composing music in 1999. Since then, he has written and recorded numerous songs. He has also performed these in several countries. He credits his beautiful wife and his lovely children, as well as a keen sense of humor for inspiring him. Above all he credits his Creator and heavenly Father for what he calls his special gifts. He ultimately hopes his music , as well as his practice of medicine, touch people's lives in a special way, thus leaving his imprint in this world, by making a positive difference.
