First time on CD... this 1987 recording is a blend of folk, bluegrass, country and more, with honest, insightful lyrics both personal and social, memorable melodies and musical back up from New York's finest folkies. 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Ellen has been writing songs and performing for over three decades. From the LA coffee houses of the Sixties, to being on the road with the band Tanglefoot in the Seventies, to years of work as a solo and with various wonderful musicians since then, she is a seasoned performer whose rich voice, strong guitar playing, honesty and humor leave people feeling good about themselves. Her songs come mainly from her attempts to be a decent human being in crazy times. THE DANCE, recorded in 1987 at Radio City Music Hall Studios, New York City, is her first child and still makes a lot of people happy. She has two other CDs currently available: INVISIBLE THREADS and COME BACK HOME. Ellen lives in western Colorado and plays music around the country.
