A home grown Rock/Funk/Blues mix 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Funk Rock, URBAN/R&B: Funk Details: Fat Pappy's sound is an upbeat mix of rock, funk, and blues. Together since 2000, the band is based in Denver and performs throughout the Denver metro and Northern Colorado area. Fat Pappy's unique groovy sound proves to be one thing you can "get out on the farm." Bass player John McLaird is a veteran performer of over 15 years in both Colorado and his native state of South Dakota. In addition to performing John is a professor of music theory at the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley. Vocalist Chris Page is originally from Philadelphia where he performed with several bands including Seasons End. Chris' "Gritty" vocal style adds a real bluesy edge to Fat Pappy's sound. Drummer Michael Nelson is a native of Colorado and has been a part of the Denver music scene for well over 10 years. Michael's solid hard hitting drumming is the backbone of Fat Pappy. Guitarist Jason Olson is also a native of Colorado performing with bands such as Vandal, Blind Redemption, and Friction since 1989. Jason has a Bachelors degree in Classical guitar, and a varied guitar background that includes rock, blues, and jazz. In addition to performing, Jason also teaches privately maintaining a studio of over 50 weekly students.
