Details: Singer-songwriter, recording artist and producer Fran Avni has been creating original music for over two decades. An internationally-acclaimed performer, she engages her audiences in dynamic interactive concerts, workshops and artist residencies. Fran Avni's varied career covers everything from early childhood literacy songs to traditional and contemporary Hebrew melodies. Her numerous recordings and songbooks showcase her far-reaching creativity and talent. MOSTLY MATZAH Subtitled 'A Holiday treat for All Ages', Mostly Matzah is full of lively music that is great for singing along with, and in some cases, dancing to. Original songs and narrative retell the ancient story of Passover and explain it in terms that children will understand and enjoy. "Passover traditions are recounted in songs and story on Mostly Matzah designed to educate children about the holiday in an entertaining way" Anne-Marie Schiro, N.Y. Times "Describing the Jewish celebration of Passover, Mostly Matzah is energetic and fresh. Most of the songs are new creations and the old standbys are treated to updated interpretations." Jill Jarnow, The All Ears Sampler
