Going For Broke Records presents a mix of southern rappers and producers from Dallas, Memphis, Texarkana, St. Louis, Louisiana, and Fresno, CA. They united and created one of the most diverse and explosive compilation ever. A true must have. DON'T SLEEP. 23 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: Going For Broke Records would like to present to the world: Southside Connected. This is a massive collaboration of southern rappers and producers with a twist of the westside representing what rap is all about. Going For Broke Records was founded by artist/ceo Roy Collier Jr.(aka-Preach) in September 2004 in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. With so many independent music labels competing for that number one spot, Roy mapped out a plan to bring different labels, producers, groups and solo acts together and unite for this project---Southside Connected. This album consist of artist from Dallas, Texarkana, Louisiana, Memphis, St.Louis, and Fresno,CA. The end result was a creation of rear view shaking, trunk burpin beats, long with rappers from throughout the south-west representing they hoods. They joined together to prove to the world that great music in the south doesn't originate out of Atlanta and Houston, but all throughout the south-west area. Going For Broke isn't just a label, but it is a movement by dedicated artist to the craft of hip hop to further prove what unity in rap can produce-----GOOD MUSIC!!
