Bluegrass, americana and roots rock intertwine. Greg demonstrates a unique sensitivity and perspective in his original compositions, reflecting on relationships, social awareness and self-discovery. 14 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, ROCK: Americana Details: Greg Zieseimer is an accomplished musician and 20+ year veteran of the central Indiana music community. A talented singer/songwriter, Greg demonstrates a unique sensitivity and perspective in his original compositions, reflecting on relationships, social awareness and self-discovery, and celebrating the trials and triumphs of that unlikely hero of the American experience, the underdog. Greg's songs bring together a wealth of influences, from Jerry Garcia and Woody Guthrie to Van Morrison and Lucinda Williams, from Bill Monroe and Willie Dixon to Steve Earle and Jay Farrar. His voice and guitar express genuine emotion and convey each song in his own unique fashion, drawing the listener in for an intimate musical experience. Greg's debut solo album, titled "Baptism of Fire", showcases Greg's songwriting. The project features the talents of a supporting cast of some of Indianapolis' finest musicians, and delves into several different genres that influence his music, including the acoustic, organic sounds of "newgrass", roots based Americana, and psychedelic rock.
