An acoustic blend of folk and country blended with lyrics that touch your heart 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Produced by Mike Dunbar, Teach Me To Fly is Harriet's first full length CD. Harriet started writing songs around the age of seven. Where other children might have written in their diaries, she wrote songs about the rites of passage through childhood. Harriet grew up in Washington and Oregon. and oftentimes used pictures from the surrounding forests in her songs. After running a gourmet mushroom farm for 10 years with her husband, they sold the farm and moved to Texas in 2002. Harriet's songs will touch you, make you laugh and maybe even make you cry. They will definitely lift you up and make your spirit fly. Some are soft and tender, inspiring, some funny and full of sensitive insight into what matters most. Harriet's soaring vocals and heartfelt delivery will take you to new places in your heart...or help you revisit some of your favorite memories because she has been there too.
