Teris style and smooth sound captures all ears. Many say Teri has a sound that is a toss between Aretha Franklin and Patti Labelle! Accompanied with an all-star 5-piece band and sultry background vocalists, Teri Ss silky smooth sound will send chills of love, and stimulate the mind and body. She has been extremely blessed with such a powerful and beautiful voice, and her ultimate dream is to share it with the world. Her career started at the early age of 7, as she delighted her church congregation with sweet melodies. At the age of 10, she was requested to perform special tributes to former Congressman Walter E. Faunteroy. During her tenure in college, she led a popular jazz band, opening for Hall of Fame Inductee Chuck Brown and the Soul Searchers. By popular demand, Teri S was requested to perform at Inaugural Balls, singing for the renowned, Dr. Dorothy Height, former Council Member Dr. Charlene Drew Jarvis, former Secretary of Labor, F. Alexis Herman, the late Coretta Scott King and a host of other dignitaries and political figures. Teri S fans, family and friends consider her to be very talented, entertaining and original. Taking advantage of winning the intense crowd of the Apollo Theatre Live in New York, Teri S pursued and landed a major singing and acting role on a Off- Broadway play at the Lincoln Theatre in Washington, D.C. She has opened and sang with seasoned international artists such as; Ollie Woodson and Dennis Edwards (former Temptations), Delfonics, and Blue Majic. She has shared the stage with Regina Belle, Kemistry and Kenny Lattimore. Teri S most recently appeared on Fox 5 Morning News, to benefit the National Capital Food Banks Annual Food Drive. In March 2006, Teri S was fortunate to perform live at the White House. She surrenders her voice to fans at Washingtons annual Taste of DC and the NCNW Black Family Reunion. Many Washingtonians may have recognized her voice in the D.C. Lottery's advertising jingle, where she sings to win! Over the years, her endurance and hard work as enabled her to win several talent shows on the local and national level, affording her the honor of singing for Patti Labelle in Philadelphia, PA. Teri S released her CD, In The Middle in August 2007! Teri S performances are not easily forgotten and will continue to build her fan base throughout the world. Listeners of the syndicated Ton Joyner Morning Show can attest to that, after hearing her perform at the DAR Constitution Hall along with the world renowned Whispers and Rubin Studdard. While performing at the Legendary Blues Alley, she captivated a star-studded audience including Joe Herndon of The Temptations, Dr, JC Hayward, VP of Media Outreach for WUSA Ch 9, and many other influential figures.
