It's got a beat like a flat footed cop. Folky like the first road into town. We push the positive to elate you. This is pop folk funky. Hot upstroke melody. The Wooden Tanks Thank you in advance for buying this record. We don't look for casual listeners, 5 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Show all album songs: Boxwood Valentine Songs Details: We like you. Even if you are mostly terrible. We will find the bright part of you and write about it. We will drag you from the mundane and magnify a strength unseen by your own eyes. There is a band you don't know yet. You woke up once thinking about a person you thought you saw at the corner store. That person was just a little too tall, or a little too shiny to be your friend and when you woke up you went searching for that long lost person. The Wooden Tanks make music for that search. The Wooden Tanks get you through rebound relationships, over that old flame for the heat of a new love. See track one. The Wooden Tanks describe the first moment you both know you'll be tearing each other's clothes off, but haven't said a word about it yet. See track two The Wooden Tanks sing about the biology of lust being more powerful than good or evil. See track three The Wooden Tanks play you to sleep when you are alone in bed and are used to having someone next to you. See track Four The Wooden Tanks melt the difference between the sober body and muddy thoughts, with the drunken body and the clearest frame of mind. See track five. This record is worth buying. So toss your chips in the pile. When we meet I'll hug you and you'll feel the magic of a lover who hasn't cheated. The Wooden Tanks are Justin Steepe, Neil Uppal, and Darren Shilton. We look forward to hanging out in your ears while you live a life that is just a little bit better for having us there. All the best, TWT
