Inspiring, haunting, and just plain fun, this eclectic Mixture of parodies and original songs will have you wiping away tears of laughter and pathos. Sample of content range: "I Feel Fifty" celebrates aging while "My Mommy is an Angel" sanctifies dying. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Joni, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: Vicki Hannah Lein is an award-winning counselor, singer/songwriter, international keynote speaker, author, teacher trainer, and comedienne who delights in traveling all over the world inviting people to come out and play with possibility. Through her singing and speaking she inspires her audiences to find magic, humor, and perspective in the adversities of everyday living. Legally blind herself, Vicki's compassion, enthusiasm and willingness to embrace life emboldens all of us in the "human club." Vicki Hannah Lein combines her unique sense of humor and her experience as a teacher, counselor, and performer to create unforgettable songs. "We all have genius in us," she says. "If we learn to trust the gentle inklings and nudges that are leading us to creativity, then our homes and careers can be transformed inch by delicious inch." Daring to Sing is a sassy, poignant companion for Vicki's new book Woman with a Voice: Daring to Live Authentically Ever After. Her songs celebrate aging ("I Feel Fifty" and "Menopause"), the life and death of her mother ("My Mommy is an Angel"), the challenges of life ("Repo Man" (written after her twenty-year-old daughter nearly died) and "'Sorry' Doesn't Work Here Anymore"). Her songs make you laugh, make you cry, make you think, and give you hope to pick yourself up one more time and get back in the game. One listener's response was: "I do not know why you are not internationally famous." From her mouth to Oprah's ear! Prediction: there will be at least one song on this CD you will HAVE to have for your lover, friend, or child.
