She has been focused on guitar/songwriting for the last 2 years. In a very short time she has blossomed into a full fledged artist. Drawing on different influences Zuri weaves a complex pattern of sound and words into a very pleasing result. She has always been wise for a child, exploring a whole range of human emotion. The CD "Timmy" represents a burst of creativity from a young and talented artist. These 9 songs are recorded in the most natural setting possible. Far from the studio the equipment was set up in the local high school auditorium and a pure performance, unhampered by effects, was captured. With no overdubbing this recording brings Zuri's natural abilities to the fore. In todays breakneck pace the world will easily find a place for the soft and intense sounds that Zuri puts forth. At the same time relaxing and thought provoking, Zuri's music weaves a spell over the listener. This first effort by Zuri will arouse in people a curiosity to question which direction this budding artist will take next.
