Sounds like we're wearing size extra-medium t-shirts, drinking 24-oz cans of domestic beer, and playing in a park where each tree is somehow the strangest tree that you've ever seen... 8 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ROCK: 90's Rock Details: Three witty and charming people, these big thumb bowlers! They spend their brief, precious moments together making songs that are sincere expressions of personal thoughts. The debut album, "recorded at gunpoint" is naked guitar/bass/drum pop-rock, matched to beautifully original melodies sung like deep conversations, but these conversations contain topics expressed in ways not likely to have been spoken or sung before - Someday an ambulance may come for someone that you never could forgive...Every day goes away every night because they have to...If you listen for the drip you may discover your secret cave of thought - And if you listen to "recorded at gunpoint", you will discover someone else's.
