A Master Bassist, Composer, Bandleader and Jazz Legend, known throughout the USA and Internationally. In New York City everyone knows Bob for his exquisite mastery of the Bass, that "Bob solo" is easily recognizable. 8 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Latin Jazz Details: Bob Cunningham is referred to as a Master Bassist, well deserving of that title due to his illustrious career in Music as an Acoustic Bassist, Composer, and Bandleader. Bob is a musicians musician, well known and highly respected by his peers. Bob has toured and recorded with Dizzy Gillespie, Max Roach, Freddie Hubbard, Art Blakey, Junior Mance, Ken McIntyre, and Frank Townsend, an A list that continues into infinity. With the Yusef Lateef Quartet, Bob and his Bass have toured North and South America, Africa, The Caribbean, and extensively throughout Europe. Bob recently packed his tuxedo with only a weeks notice and took his Trio to Astana, in the Republic of Kazakhstan! New Yorkers know they don't have to go very far to find Bob, up in a Harlem or down on Broadway in Brooklyn and out in Queens! Bob is a main attraction during the summer concerts on Jazz Mobile and various New York City parks. Bob has played in almost every club in New York including the Lenox Lounge - Zebra Room, St. Nicks Pub, 55 Bar The Garage in Greenwich Village. The title song Walkin Bass is really very similar to how you see Bob as he goes about town with his Bass. Here you are privy to one of Bob's favorite musical unions, with his dear friend Bross Townsend, an extraordinary pianist, as is clearly demonstrated throughout this album. Walkin Bass is a labor of love, you can feel the vibes between the musicians, all excellent in their own right. Best of all you can tell they had fun, and you will too!
