"Buckethead has been in Guns N' Roses only for a short while and he's already breaking the rules. On his eighth solo album, the mysterious, gifted guitar shredder and horror-movie fanatic forgoes all loud noises on a spiritual path to find his inner Buckethead. Electric Tears is a New Age mix of slow, meditative soloing and soft acoustic guitars - including a stately, flamenco-styled ode to jazz great Miles Davis - that's light on effects but heavy on atmosphere. This must be what guitar gods listen to when they go to sleep at night." - Guitar World "Those looking for clues regarding the new G n' R sound will be in for a rude awakening: Electric Tears is a meditative mix of flamenco, New Age and gentle psychedelia." - Rolling Stone "This is the side of Buckethead that few people know. Far from the chicken coop, the chainsaws and the severed heads. There is his own music of the soul, a divine, spiritual and personal sound. This is a musical offering of peace. Life is for the living." - Bill Laswell "A virtuoso..." - Los Angeles Times "Wow!!! Keep up the abnormal work because normal work becomes a job... Did I mention that Buckethead also is my greatest friend and the rippinest guitarist in the whole dang universe!*!*" - Bootsie Collins
