Great soundtrack music great piano playing, it's got soul in it. The melody is stimulating, doesn't get off track or get boring. the mood of nostalgia and better days is successfully kept throughout the song. Would be perfect in a movie soundtrack, opening credits music while we're looking at panoramic new york in the fall. - sholdergreye Syracuse, New York Reviews of Nightlife by Clayton Wright Jazz Piano Trio Review of Nightlife (Jazz Escapades) by Charlie North Lima, Ohio Tinkle The Keys! Clayton Wright, Master of Music in Composition and Piano, winner of national music competitions, has released a new CD called JAZZ ESCAPADES for jazz piano trio (piano, drums, bass), produced by Audiosphere Music Company. Review of REVERIES CD: (Apr. 19, 2003) by Walter Jon Anholt (composer/pianist/music publisher), Music Critic of Goldcoast Music Review: "REVERIES is one of the most perfect albums that I have ever heard. When I listen to REVERIES by Clayton Wright, I imagine a colorful and grandiose ballet." Review of REVERIES CD: (Apr. 19, 2003) by Billy Daves, Music critic of Goldcoast Music Review: "REVERIES is spontaneous, subconscious, automatic sounding music. It equates the "DANCE OF LIFE". REVERIES is music with high contrast and running melodic lines flowing. You cannot get into a difficult discussion of the images that people see in it very much (it is so complex). People have so many images of it, and it would take a lot of time to go into a lengthy discussion of it."
