E-S-P, the Erica Sommer Project, lead by powerful, spirited vocals of Erica-Sommer, is all about catchy love songs with infectious melodies that really rock out. Behind this energetic Rock n' Roll sound, this band delivers the extremely personal songs of Erica-Sommer's life experiences of love, heartbreak, and self-discovery... Erica-Sommer, originally from Atlanta, GA, started writing and performing her songs at an early age. As an only child, this was her way of expressing herself and reaching out to others. Influenced by artists like the Cranberries, Steven Tyler, Bono, K's Choice, and Alanis Morissette, she realized the true power and emotion of her songs needed a real rock edge to express the hurricane of emotion that came from within. But she didn't make her vision become a reality until she met Dave Siegel. With Siegel, E-S created a sound reflective of her vision, but with a fun, light-hearted twist like rock bands, Blink 182, Ash and Weezer. From the beginning, Erica-Sommer and Dave Siegel they shared a vision of what E. S. P. could be. After over 3 years hard work, development, and vision, E. S. P. plays fun; lively shows filled with infectious rock n' roll songs from the heart and soul of Erica-Sommer... E. S. P. plays many songs about love whether it's a sweet fun-loving song like "Every Little Thing You Do", or a sad song of regret like "Stay With Me" or a song full of attitude and spunk like "It's Too Late". Another perspective of E. S. P. are the inspired anthems "You Make Me High", "At Last" and "Hello, Goodbye", offering a positive outlook on self-discovery, life, and hope. Through their music, E. S. P., explores the timeless subjects of life and love. Oozing energy, fun, and crazy passion, and no matter what, E. S. P. always rocks out! Even as you listen to these infectious songs, remember that the greatest part of E. S. P. is seeing them live. Erica Sommer works her punky, sex appeal while rocking out her high-energy band.
