Christian/Country/Southern Gospel Music From the Heart 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, GOSPEL: Country Gospel Details: Bio: Fred Atkins Fred Atkins, one of 6 kids, was born and raised in Louisiana. A Christian up-bringing by godly parents had the greatest influence on his life. His father Buck Atkins passed away when Fred was 9 years old. His mother Annie Bell Atkins greatly sacrificed to raise and instill Christian values and morals in her children. Fred played sax in the high school band and guitar in local junior and high school rock bands but gospel music had the greatest impact in his life. Fred was saved at 9 years old and came to know a loving Heavenly Father. In 1987, Fred's mother passed away. 'My Great Loss today' was written right after the funeral as a tribute to his mother. Fred's greatest desire is to reach the lost with the songs that God gives him. Fred hopes you enjoy the album and come to know a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
