Latin World Fusion 10 MP3 Songs LATIN: Latin Jazz, WORLD: World Fusion Details: With his debut, Heading North, violinist, composer and bandleader Jesus Florido introduces a compelling artistry balanced on a fine axis of musical virtuosity and pure heart. "This album came about from what is not out there from an instrumental point of view," he explains. "Jazz, rock, classical, Latin -- my album is a melting pot." The savory list of sonic influences can be traced back to Venezuela, Jesus' home, and its pastiche of Cuban, Dominican, Trinidadian and African cultures. Jesus' family is Italian, and in the grand European tradition, opera and classical music also informed his early years. He embarked on his first tour at age 11. By 20, he had performed in concert with every major symphony orchestra in his homeland. He arrived in the U.S. to further his studies in musical academia, but was soon performing in cavernous arenas to enormous audiences with Yo Yo Ma, the Moody Blues, Jimmy Page Robert Plant, and Whitney Houston. This high profile exposure fueled the fire to ignite his own solo career. Heading North is notable for the contributions of the musicians, producers, engineers and programmers who join Jesus. "It was important to me that project was different from the get go," he relates. "I wanted to communicate on a higher level." Heading North features a superlative ensemble: Rigoberto Lopez on bass, 3-Time Grammy winner drummer Ral Pineda, Jos Gregorio on percussion, Gustavo Ramirez on keyboards and John Villalobos on guitars and tres. Adding to the album's eclectic sheen are special guests including famed 2-time Grammy Nominated programmer/remixer Carmen Rizzo, and guitar hero Gary Hoey. Jesus composes in an unconventional miracle of pure inspiration, building songs from a rhythmic and harmonic base -- chords and a drumbeat -- then improvising on top of them. "I may clean it up, but I assure you, on every track what you hear is exactly what came through my head in that moment. To write fresh music I have to recall exactly how I felt about the tune the first time I heard it," he reveals. Across this vivid spectrum of music, the unmistakable timbre of Jesus violin remains an indelible voice connecting the songs that comprise Heading North. From the sophisticated veneer of the title track to the incendiary Latin grooves of "Mi Negra," the prog-rock influenced "Con Todo," the electro-Santeria vibe of "Gitano" to the funk-informed "Olivado," Jesus bends rhythmic and melodic structures to his will. "Every song is a story without words," he relates. "If I can tell it to the audience when they listen to my record, then I've succeeded." With his violin as a compass, Jesus Florido heads toward a limitless musical horizon with a stunning debut, Heading North.
