Turn the lights down and remember what it was like to be young and feel old with this original blend of mountain tradition, British folk, and American eclecticism. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: An uncorked genie lamp of introspective, honest, inquisitive and soulful folk originals harkening Bert Jansch, John Denver, and Elliot Smith--but maintaining a strong lyrical originality--this entirely self-produced acoustic effort from New York-based singer/ songwriter Joe Jung intertwines the melancholy with the joy that genuine love brings. Ranging from reflections on childhood, first love, self revelation and even family, the songs include Jung's acoustic and Hawaiian slide guitar, percussion, harmonica, and plenty of other creative instrumentation. Lyrical gems include "The Man Inside", "Tea Time", "Christmas in Connecticut", and "Long Time Running" as well as a delightful instrumental composition entitled "Over the Harbor" and the haunting ballad "Dusk on the River Rose". Leave the sap and cliches at the door and hold someone's hand while listening to these intelligent, beautiful originals.
