However, once you know more about her, you find it was her destiny from the beginning. She started her musical journey by studying piano at the early age of seven. By age eight she had already composed her first piano composition. Amazing? Not for Kallie! Some other child might have rested on her accomplishments. Not Kallie! She would start studying the flute at age 12, and classical vocal training since age thirteen. And most recent, she has now logged one year of violin. This would be difficult for most young people, if not impossiblebut not for Kallie. She has self-discipline, and a true hearts desire to achieve the impossible. Over the last five years Kallie has appeared in twelve (12) Community Musical Theater productions, and has won Best Female Vocalist and Show-Stopper Awards. I have worked with Kallie for over five years, and have found her to be a dedicated and willing-to-listen young lady. She composed all of the piano compositions in her CD, Collage of Friends, and all of the music on her new Divided CD, with co-writer credits on I Just Want To Cry and Wonder Why. Kallie is able to sing all genres of music, but perhaps her love of Broadway and its music is her favorite. Kallie is always writing, and when not sleeping you can find her at the piano, composing yet another terrific melody. These two CDs are only the beginningeach day brings new and exciting music. Im proud to have worked with Kallie on these songs, and look forward to more delightful moments in Kallies musical journey. Jim Olson, Columbia River Records
