California country with a touch of bluegrass and a bit of rockabilly. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, COUNTRY: Country Pop Details: Katie Trickett was raised in Maryland, just northwest of Washington D.C. She relocated to Southern California in 1989 and entered the USC School of Music in 1992. After having accompanied her father, Folk Legacy Records artist Ed Trickett, at several concerts she began developing her unique country folk style and through a wonderful class at USC, developed a love for songwriting. The first song she ever wrote.... As the final exam for that class, later became the title song to her first CD "The Next Time", released by Lawson Records in 1995. "The Next Time" was nationally distributed and released by an independent label in Europe and was distributed in 29 countries. When it was time for "Let Your Heart Run", CD number two, Katie decided she wanted creative control so started Via Marina Records, she wrote or co-wrote eight of the twelve tracks and co-produced it with Vern Monnett. "Let Your Heart Run" was released in 1997 and include a duet with Billy Swan; background vocals by Alan Rich, Randy Meisner (The Eagles); and the musicianship of Augie Meyers (Texas Tornadoes), Cary Park (Boy Howdy), Gary Hewitt (Gary Allan), Vern Monnett (Freddy Fender), Jerry Scheff (Elvis Presley), Kenny Blackwell, Gabe Witcher, and Chris Cooke. Katie still performs around the Southern California area but hasn't been touring as often lately as she is more focused on songwriting and music production. However, there is a live CD in the works featuring Katie Trickett's songwriting alone and with co-writers Vern Monnett and Travis Parker. The live CD will be released sometime next year.
