Equally mesmerizing with her band or solo with her guitar and keyboard, Stahler was selected to showcase at the 2005 ROCKRGRRL music conference. Her songs have also appeared on network television shows including CBS's The Ghost Whisperer and The Unit. In addition, Stahler was nationally recognized in the spring of 05 when she was chosen from thousands of talented singer-songwriters as was one of six winners in the John Lennon Songwriting Scholarship contest. ??In 2004 Stahler's self-released EP Turn the Lights Down dazzled fans and critics alike: Stahler is like a more genuine Sheryl Crow blessed with gold for a voice and a penchant for songwriting she can seemingly tell a story with one syllable (Northeast Performer Magazine). Stahler's debut, full-length release, Stitches in My Sleeve, is another beautiful showcase. Produced by Jason Petrin, and engineered by Mark Wessel, this album stands to turn heads. Stahler will be touring in the Spring of 2007 in support of her new release. Gifted song writing and intimate, warm vocals will gently pull your emotional state into heavyheartedness. Liz Stahler's unique style can only begin to be described as folk roots-rock with profoundly pleasing delight and sadness BrightSide Broadcast, Seattle, WA
