Details: Peirson Ross and his untamable flock of musicians known as The Wilderness are spreading like a forest fire on stages, play lists and airwaves after releasing their latest "The Lost EP." Following recent appearances in Europe, NYC and Toronto's NXNE Conference, Peirson took up a summer residency at TO's Legendary Cameron House where his modern day spirituals fed the weary weekly during the production of this emotionally riveting recording. This strong response came as no surprise to his already existing fans who praised his previous album - "A Boy Caught on Words" which also lead to Peirson's songs being included in several film and television soundtracks. Known for his stark down-home delivery and heart-wrenching poetry in song, concert-goers will continue to witness a genuine original as he and the band gather around their table to deliver what CBC radio has called "an unforgettable live music experience". muses: Nina Simone, CSNY, Richie Havens, Peter Gabriel, L. van Beethoven, Cat Stevens.
