Details: Rhonda Bremond is a Southern California native who has been actively involved in worship ministry for over 25 years. Currently residing in Washington State, she along with her husband and two teenage children have owned and operated a thriving graduation and recognition business since 1989. Pursuing a song writing and music career has been a dream since childhood where Rhonda was active in musical theater and various vocal ensembles. Throughout her career she has ministered and served at numerous churches, music festivals and conferences across the west coast. Finally, after many years in production and lots of encouragement from family and friends, she has released her first CD of original songs entitled "Captured By Your Love". Marked by strong lyrics, a clear message, and soulful rhythms, Rhonda describes her musical style as "Fusion Gospel". Blending the styles of Jazz, Traditional/Urban Gospel, Contemporary Christian and Pop music, her songs have a cross cultural, multi-generational, easy listening appeal.
