Rob began writing his own material and moved to Casper, Wyoming in 1982. He continued to perform his own original songs wherever he could find a stage. Rob won the 1986 True Value and the 1991 Wrangler Country Showdowns in Casper. Rob began his professional career in 1991 as one of Wyoming's premier single acts, performing throughout the states of Wyoming, South Dakota and Colorado. In 1992 Rob recorded a pilot demo of his original song I Need A Vacation. The song was sent to Music Row Magazine by local am radio station KVOC in August 1992 where it received an Honorable Mention in the Critics Corner. In February of 1996 Rob Staffig was the opening act for Country Music Stars, David Lee Murphy and David Ball in 1997 at the Everglades Seafood Festival in Everglades City, Florida. In 2001 Rob Staffig recorded his first professional CD titled Drive-In Nights containing 13 original songs with a New County/Rock feel. About this CD... Country or Rock... Rob Staffig has his own unique style with a blend of both, his songs on this CD that will take you to those long ago Drive In Nights and Love that's Forever Missed. Eddie's Guitar (Rob's personal favorite) will take you to the border edge of Rock, written for all the unsung hero's from our nations war's. Take What's Left Of My Heart is an 80's style rock ballad that will touch the heart, for anyone who's been on the losing end of a relationship. Rob wrote I Need A Vacation (with that island beat) for everyone out there that's had it with working day in and day out and feels it's time for that long overdue Vacation! Overall Rob Staffig writes and sings his songs that most everyone can relate to! Rob Staffig currently performs 50+ live shows a year and looks forward to getting back in the studio to cut his next CD containing more of his original music. Contact Info: Rob Staffig Entertainment P.O. Box 2415 Mills, WY 82644 (307) 377-9332
