A fresh addition to experimental electronic pop. A wash of letters and sounds that conflict and fall over each other in a vain attempt to be something new. 13 MP3 Songs POP: Synth Pop, ELECTRONIC: Synthpop Details: We count backwards from fourteen: After months of unnecessary struggle, and an endless failure to close any curtains, we, The Blinking Project, now have something for you. We have sucked in atmosphere and spat it out in a wash of letters and sounds that conflict and fall over each other in a vain attempt to be something new. We present to you, for your assessment, a story of introspective interaction: The Two Person Play. This marks a new beginning in our quest to put our sounds in your ears. When you hear these new noises, ignore thier past. I promise you: we have plenty of nothing to say, and too many ways of saying it. We dont listen when were singing. Hear what you will. -Nic (and The Blinking Project)
