Details: ARE WE THERE YET? THE PUCKS Each song is a gem, that shines brighter with every play.
You'll fall in love with cuts like CINEMA , feel the heartbreak and loneliness of a man left behind in a small northern town. You'll wanna jump to your feet and cheer for NO MORE LITTLE WOMAN a bluesy feel good, tongue in cheek ladies anthem!! Gaze into your crystal ball in DESTINY, sway to the sensual heat of FAVORITE FANTASY, find your inner peace with CLOSER THAN A PRAYER, and sail the high seas in the gripping ballad of PARADISE ISLAND, a ballad that reaches down into the very soul of every young guy's imagination. And our two covers...I Want You To Want Me and Across The Universe ARE WE THERE YET? was recorded in front of an enthusiastic audience, and some microphone's, and has successfully captured the high energy and infectious spirit of THE PUCKS live show!! Although this trio is rooted in Folk/Rock, they bring a fresh flavour of pop and blues, to their music, using to their advantage, unusual instruments, such as sousaphone and African percussion. Combine these with the acoustic sounds of guitar, harmonica and powerful vocal harmonies, and you get a style that is fresh, energetic, passionate. A little blog about us!! Murray's a great story-teller!! with a pen and an acoustic guitar, he really knows how to grab the listener, using biting humor, imagery, and poetic intensity!! (Murray loves to get in his canoe and sneak up on wild animals) Not your standard melodies either, he uses lots of cool hooks and creative chord changes, giving his songs, rhythmic, haunting, powerful, melody lines. Cindy shares lead vocals with Murray, and creates the harmony lines that are part of the group's signature sound.(Cindy loves to paint her house, over and over again !) She's The Pucks percussionist, playing hand-drums, and other toys.. she likes to rock things up, throwing down some world-beat rhythms, likes to rip off a harp solo too! Lloyd, the Tubaczar, knows how to deliver that funky bottom end, getting down on da bass, upright bass and the hyper cool sousaphone!! (Lloyd loves to catch giant fish, He also likes to notice different colors in the fields and trees) He drives our bus! He also plumps up the harmonies, plays acoustic guitar, and sings a tune or 2! Your brand new " PUCKS" cd., ARE WE THERE YET?, will take you on a musical journey to their roots deep in the Canadian North!! Have you ever wondered what thats like? No me either. THE PUCKS have done it all, playing in front of thousands at the Commonwealth Games to performing for Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, live CBC radio broadcasts, festivals throughout North America, concerts, and many numerous venues. And the party is still goin.' on!!! "The pucks performed at our festival, and stole the show as performers and people....the music of The Pucks is highly accessible for people of all ages....A joy to have at our event.....Doug Cox-Artistic Director/ Vancouver Island Music Festival "There's good repartee among these players, and the audience is smiling as much as Cindy(on mushrooms) The two standing ovations were much deserved.".....
