Article Marketing is an effective way to market your website and to build your brand in your niche. You, as the marketer, will write content that has between two hundred and a thousand words on a particular subject which people will find informative. An article will generally have an enticing title such as 5 Tips On Using Article Marketing To Increase Website Visitors. This article will have a resource box at the bottom where the author of the article can advertise who he is and his website. These articles can be passed around using ezine directories, publishers, blog owners and other websites as long as the article is not modified in any way and most importantly, the original resource box is kept at the bottom.
