Today's Pop and R&B meets 1960's motown sound in this classic mix of Jazz blues pop and R+B. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Bubblegum Pop, BLUES: Acoustic Blues Details: Singer and musician ANNOR DOEMAN began singing at age six, and playing music by the time she was 16. Now with her musical debut: "Time Is Slipping Away (Baby)", she showcases her style and the musical sound she's always loved and admired making it all her own: "When TAXI, (The World's Leading Independent A&R Company)quoted "I Don't Wanna Lose You" as having the Motown Sound I felt so blessed. It was always my goal to capture the warm feeling that I got when I listened to their (Diana Ross and The Supremes, Smokey Robinson - to name a few) records." She plays all of the music on the CD, utilizing guitar (on 'Good Wood') and piano and drums. With the continued support of her family, friends and fans around the world (Thanks to CDbaby:) she's slowly making her dreams come true of becoming a professional singer and performer. "Thank you for your support!" Remember to WRITE YOUR REVIEW at the BOTTOM to let people know how much you enjoyed her music. Just click Write Review!
