Mostly, the music came from passion, a place filled with spirit and a love of life. There are many beings and natural wonders to acknowledge for such good and powerful vibes, perhaps too many to mention here so Ill stick with thanking those who encouraged me and/or stoked my creative fire while I was creating this wonder-filled musical project: Strat my soopa-doopa co-producer; my Hawaii Ohana of the Ol Dog, Dorian S, Ashley Y; the Happy Ranch Killaz - Big Boo, Neeboze, Shiva the Shu, Shteecker Deex, and Barney; Shane OMadden; Paco Pena; Eric Mouquet Michel Sanchez; Claude Jean-Marc Challe; Julie Taymor; Craig Anderton; Rich T; Jenna

M; Peter D KB; and Rick H and Jackie H who stick up for Nature in the biggest way. I love all o ya! And especially I thank Barbie -- La Reina del Rancho Feliz -- whose love and friendship is such a part of these groovy and soulful songs I created for you all to enjoy... Greg Simon San Diego, 2008

===== About Greg Simon:

Although California-born, Greg grew up outside of North America on the islands of Trinidad and Hawaii, and has enjoyed listening to playing a variety of worldwide beat music for most of his life. The international flavor of his background has been a big influence in his taste in melody, mood, and rhythm. A Berklee College of Music alum and a grant award recipient from Grammy sponsors NARAS (the National Academy of Recording Arts Sciences), Greg has been composing, producing, and performing music for over 20 years. When he is not working on music, Greg manages his small fruit and vegetable farm in rural San Diego County, California.
