An album of contemporary and traditional songs and instrumentals from one of the most respected folk duos in the UK, with special guests including Gordon Giltrap and Ashley Hutchings. 15 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: "For me, music must have the following elements: either make me smile, or bring a tear to my eye, and must have that indefinable 'tingle factor'. This CD has them in abundance with the gifts these two artists display here. Judy has a voice to die for, and Steve has got to be one of the most respected guitarist/composers one could wish for. This album for me is a prime example of the 'less is more' approach to recording and the tasteful addition of strings and percussion on some of the tracks is all that is needed - Judy's voice and Steve's playing are more than enough to convey the quality of their music. I am delighted to have been a small part of this recording's history." GORDON GILTRAP People who are interested in should consider this download.
