Sensual, acoustic pop, emotionally written and performed by this powerful singer often described as an original mix of Melissa Etheridge colliding with Jewel. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, POP: Delicate Details: Well established in the Montreal music scene, Lee relocated to New England in 2002 and soon met up with a talented group of local singer-songwriters, who have helped her out on her latest solo CD, titled "Clandestiny". This eclectic songwriter has had her songs recorded by Canadian blues legend Bob Walsh, Scottish country band Evangeline and French Canadian folkie, Alain Paquette. Her first solo CD called The Therapy Sessions was released in 2001 and showcased her powerful voice and pop songwriting sensibilities. The CD received heavy airplay in Canada and two songs charted on the CBC radio network playlists. Released in December 2005, Lee's new CD "Clandestiny" features 12 self-penned tracks, best labeled "sensual, acoustic pop". With her soaring vocals and emotionally-charged delivery, Lee doesn't hold back and lets the raw and candid spirit of her songs ring true. She performs regularly at local venues in New England, both solo and with her talented band. More info at: leemusic.net
