You could be completely overcome with extreme satisfaction. Kenny Royster is a great up and coming Nashville artist. He fits somewhere between Travis Tritt, Tim McGraw, Randy Travis and Merle Haggard. You're in for a big treat when you hear this guy sing. This album starts with a tear and ends with a smile. It will make you want to cry, live, love and laugh out loud.(IT WILL EXERCISE ALL YOUR EMOTIONS EXCEPT HATE AND FEAR). "Let Me Soothe My Soul" is a powerful ballad about a guy who lost his significant other and a nice lady who is flirting with him.(I WONDER IF THEY GET TOGETHER). "I'm Gonna' Be Bad Today" is a tongue in cheek rowdy song about a man who has been at home too long and not having any fun. So he decides to go out on the town big time. Great groovy upbeat dance song. (HE COMPARES HIMSELF WITH LEROY BROWN AND BIG BAD JOHN). "Let Our Love Grow" is a waltz about a couple who met in the mountains, fell in love and raised a family. (I WONDER IF THEY LIVED HAPPILY EVER AFTER). "Application Blues" is a groovy country rock song about a person who lost his job and is having difficulty finding another. (WE CAN ALL RELATE TO THIS) "When I Think About you" is a mid tempo love song about a couple who does everything together and love it. (VERY UNSUAL, HUH?) A GREAT ANNIVERSARY SONG. "Honky-tonk Superbowl" is about a guy who loves to drink, dance and chase the girls. He wants to be better at it than anyone else. (YOU KNOW, THE LIFE OF THE PARTY). "Two Trails" is about a widowed father who is grieving because his daughter eloped. This is a great traditional country song, a belt buckle polisher. (WITH STEEL GUITAR AND ALL). "The Birth of Yours and Mine" is about two friends who lost their lovers and he is asking her for a date.(BET YOU THOUGHT THEY WERE HAVING A BABY. NO, NOT A CD BABY). (I'M NOT SURE BUT I THINK SHE ACCEPTS) "The No Reason Blues". This guy is down in the dumps and doesn't know why. He just wants to be alone. I think we've all felt like that at one time or another. (I HOPE HE GETS TO FEELING BETTER). "Darlin Dear", a very funny song about a drunken gigolo. This song pleases all ages, including youngsters and seniors. (IS THIS GUY REALLY A BAD PERSON OR JUST A SMART ONE?). A big variety. You won't believe how good this album is until you hear it!! Get a copy now and save yourself the unpleasantness of not owning one!!!!!!!!!!
