Poetic Rock - think Jewel with "balls". This amazing singer seems to be on an angry path towards peace. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Rolling Stone Interview with Rachael Indigo: RS: Describe your style of music. RI: Poetic rock, a.k.a. "Jewel with balls". RS: What's the Rachael Indigo Experience like? RI: Imagine something like Andrew Dice Clay meets Tori Amos. It's a no-holds-barred lyrical attack with throaty vocals and confessional writing. I'm on an angry path towards peace. We are making a stew of 90s washed up, pass, jaded, sold-out, wannabe-poetic whores, and feeding it to the flannel-shirt-wearing, no-bra, hairy-armpit 'liger'. A liger is a cross between a lion, a tiger and a dyke; bread for its skills in magic and sloppy, psuedo-goth, pop lyrics. See also: Alanis Morissette. RS: What is a live Rachael Indigo concert really like? RI: It is an experience, and unforgettable ride into the collective subconscious, an indelible and tumultous ride on the cosmic dragon.
