An ambient, downtempo adventure submerged deeply beneath the sea. Haunting melodies mix with mesmerizing, molten electro as complex hip-hop-infused beats crunch their way to the surface. 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Experimental, ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo Details: Justin Morgan writes electronic music as Rusuden. His style is an interestingly varied one, blending many different styles together into his own form of robotic-yet-beautiful electronica. Originally a member of various indie rock projects, a passing interest in electronic music soon became a passion, and by 1999 Morgan was performing regularly as Rusuden. Rusuden's Formulae album has been described as "chilled future jazz electronics" and "a grab bag of everything electro from the last ten years." Grooves magazine compared the album as "A bit of Rephlexian 'braindance', organic Kracfive goofiness, old-school Spacetime Continuum funk, happy gabber madness, perhaps some Hawtinesque acid beats, or a little sensual Plaid synth all percolate into the brew."
