Evocative, soulful vocals in front of acousti-rock-pop-flavored personable lyrics.... 6 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: The Sue Quigley Band is based in Seattle,WA and has been gigging around there for over 2 years now. Sue had done the open mic thing off and on for years and finally decided to get busy after meeting neighbor John Mills over the fence between their houses. Sue asked John to play bass and they were off like a prom dress.... They were joined recently by Gary Sorenson on lead guitar. The band's EP has been featured on 103.7 "The Mountain"'s Sunday Brunch show, as well as Q-13's Morning Show on Fox TV. Two songs's are featured in indie filmmaker Tony Hebert's "The End Of August". Sue has begun a monthly songwriter series at the Paragon Bar on Queen Anne in Seattle featuring local unsigned talent. Plans for a full-length cd are in the works for the next year and Sue is traveling to NYC this summer to play at the famous Bitter End for a female singer-songwriter showcase.
