Soulful, pop-infused rock. Anchored by the sexy-cool vocals of Leslie Kooy, this CD ranges from jangly alt-pop to wide open rock-n-roll. The perfect soundtrack for a couple martinis and a broken heart. 9 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: THIS CD IS NOW OUT OF PRINT. You can buy it on iTunes and other digital networks. Or, if you don't mind a burned copy, send e-mail to info@urbanchese.com, we'll figure out a way to get it to you. Thanks! HISTORY: In the late 1990's, a power-pop/punk trio called Blockhead was formed, featuring Pete Glase on drums, Neel Daniel on bass guitar, and Patrick Stirrat on guitar and vocals. They put out a couple lo-fi, high-energy CDs on the Urban Cheese Records label. A couple years later, this trio hooked up with a new drummer (Brian T. Lumb) and a jazz vocalist (Leslie Kooy), and moved Pete Glase to lead guitar in the process. After a few summertime jams things started to fall into place, and a new band emerged with a completely different sound. The result is "Non-Specific Gravity", the debut release from The Cocktail Revisionists. THE BAND: Leslie Kooy - vocals Pete Glase - lead rhythm guitar Patrick Stirrat - rhythm guitar keyboards Neel Daniel - bass guitar Brian T. Lumb - drums NOTES ABOUT THIS CD: This is a multi-media CD. It will play in both audio CD players and CD-ROM systems. The CD-ROM portion features an interactive experience with more than 50 pictures of the band, song lyrics, additional information, MP3's, and two versions of the music video for "I don't feel (like celebrating)."
